TRAINING IS FOR YOU

- Whether you're an experienced or inexperienced youth worker or involved in youth organizations, this program is for you if:
- You have none or limited knowledge of the Dragon Dreaming model.
- You're interested in implementing a project idea.
- You want to explore project management theory and team management.
- Building connections, sharing experiences, and working together with others suit your interests.
- You're open to new perspectives and methodologies to enhance your effectiveness.
- You're ready to co-create impactful projects and inspire the youth you work with.
- Committing to the full training duration and actively participating is something you're willing to do.

Petra Jazbec is an educator, who combines nature and people as two pillars in her work. She has been living for 14 years on a social-permaculture farm as one of the founders and co-creators of farm Veles. She is a permaculture teacher and a Dragon Dreaming trainer, focusing on social aspects, but bringing a holistic way of life to projects. Facilitating courses and facilitating courses and events about community life, project design and sustainability is her passion. She is a coordinator and mentor in many youth projects and one of the YTS visionaries.

TRAINERS

Jošt Kozelj is involved in different projects for personal development, group projects, start-up organizations and businesses. As a visionary and project manager, he is involved in establishing different sustainable centers.

A mission is to pass the knowledge to anyone who has a desire for personal and professional development. He has earned the titles of graduated permaculture designer and teacher, DragonDreaming Trainer, CLIPS Trainer and Virtual Coach.

VENUE AND TRAVEL

Sunny Hill is a space of cooperation, innovation, and supportive environment for research, education and active practice of sustainable development. They use appropriate technologies to build a home for a sustainable community. Their guiding principle is cohabiting and collaborating in the living social laboratory. For social and environmental challenges they combine modern and traditional solutions.

FOOD AND ACCOMMODATION

Meals will be vegetarian including cheese, milk products and eggs, all organic from local production. You mark your dietary in the application form. We invite a non-alcohol policy into this event.

Accommodation will be in two different venues, one is 10 min walk through nature apart, second is at Sunny Hill residency.

Both venues offer all you need for a comfortable stay. You will be accommodated in shared bedrooms with 3 - 6 beds. No single rooms are available. We are using dry, compost toilets.

PROJECT COSTS

It is an Erasmus+ project that allows people working with youth to go abroad, learn foreign languages and cultures, network, learn best practices on youth participation and contribute to a better world with the support of the Erasmus+ programme. It provides an opportunity to join meaningful work and experiential learning while costs for food, accommodation and travel are covered - the rate for covered traveling costs depends on the distance.

A photograph of a woman in the foreground, blindfolded with a green patterned cloth. She is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and red trousers, with a green shawl draped over her shoulders. In the background, several other people are visible, some also blindfolded, standing in a grassy field with dense trees behind them. A large green semi-circle is overlaid on the bottom left of the image, containing the text.

Out beyond ideas of wrongdoing
and right-doing,
there is a field –
I'll meet you there.
